GREETINGS

Dr. Dani Rabwin is as passionate about veterinary medicine today as she was when she graduated from UC Davis in 2004. She is a practicing veterinarian, mentorship expert, public speaker and author. Her love for this field comes through to her clients, colleagues, and the host of veterinary and technician students and early career vets she has mentored over the years. Dr. Dani's unique combination of enthusiasm and experience makes her perfectly suited to elevate veterinary mentorship.

We believe that new veterinarians should strive for so much more than avoiding burnout.

Let's help them thrive and find joy in this amazing profession!

WHAT IS READY, VET, GO?

01

COHORT BASED

New vets gain community and support interacting with mentors and peers

02
